Musical Director

Previously, Sister Lorraine has found herself performing from under the stage (Hello, Dolly!), beside the stage (Zorba), in front of the stage (Guys and Dolls), behind the stage (Peter Pan), and even from above the stage (Into the Woods). She is now somewhat astonished to suddenly find herself plumb centre stage. As Lorraine Smith, she can be found caring for the little angels at Rainbow Place Preschool, and living in heavenly bliss in Sylvan Valley.

Are you out of work? Out of school? 16-24?

How about?

- Free computers
- Free internet
- Free photocopying
- Free faxing
- Free phone

Check it out!
945-1600

Job Connect is a program funded by the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities. Our mission is to help youth 16-24 find and keep jobs. We have a resource centre that is packed full of job related resources, including free internet, word processing, photocopying, faxing and most importantly - coffee and a friendly smile.

If you or someone you know is 16-24, out of work and school (or just part time) encourage them to visit Job Connect. Our Employment Consultants can help design resumes and cover letters, practice interviewing, suggest employers and provide support. We also have funds available to provide experience through job trials, job shadows or subsidized placements for harder to place clients.

Are you an employer looking for help?
We can help you find the right person!

Sister Mary Leo

Sister Leo had her heart set on becoming a ballerina but knowing that God always has a plan, chose to dedicate her life as a nun. People will know her by the name Andrea Caughill, a grade 12 student attending Sir James Dunn highschool. Andrea is the oldest in her family and enjoys spending time with her siblings Lisa and Graeme and her loving parents Neil and Teresa, as well as with her wonderful boyfriend and friends. Andrea works part-time in the canteen at the Soo Pee Wee Arena, and is an active member of Central United Church singing with "Friends of a New Mind" and ringing handbells with "High Fidelity." She is the youth representative for Central at Presbytery, and Vice President of the Algoma Presbytery Youth Council. Andrea plans to graduate with OAC's next year. Although she is undecided about her future, Andrea hopes to travel, and knows singing will always be a passion of hers. As with Sister Leo, she trusts that God has a plan for her.

Sister Mary Paul (Amnesia)

Sister Mary Paul may have regained her memory, but she is still mercifully unable to remember her appearances as Meg Brockie, the town trollop in Brigadoon; Aldonza, the ever accommodating kitchen wench in Man of LaMancha; Fraulein Kost, the lady of the evening in Cabaret; or as the tempestuous Lilli/Kate in Kiss Me, Kate. Mysteriously, she has also been seen in Russia as Hodel in Fiddler on the Roof; in the court of Siam as Anna in The King and I, on Prince Edward Island as Marilla in Anne of Green Gables, and in Sault Ste. Marie as Louise Stephens. Sister hopes that Reverend Mother never finds out about her stint Once Upon a Mattress, or that, since the Little Sisters of Hoboken's last appearance on stage, she has taken another kind of vow, this time with husband John.

Reverend Mother

Reverend Mother has been in and out of local theatre for several years, and as Ruth Williamson has appeared in such productions as Ladies in Retirement, Summer and Smoke, My Fair Lady, Annie, Guys and Dolls, and the Sault Theatre Workshop's 50th Anniversary Gala. She recently appeared as Rachel, a psycho-religious kook in the production 7 Stories, and decided to stay in the religious mode and join the cast of Nunsense to do a "Superior" job as Reverend Mother. When it comes to acting, Ruth is a "no nunsense" kind of person, but in real life, "heaven only knows" what she will do next.

Sister Robert Anne

Before Sister Robert Anne saw the error of her ways, she flirted with the spiritual life in Jesus Christ Superstar and The Sound of Music. Of course she was forced to change her name from Scarletta Marenger after her arrest and parole, and she has since had to forsake her children and granddaughter 'til she cleans up her act! She has also served time doing community service in shows such as The Little Foxes, Gypsy, Fiddler on the Roof, Once Upon a Mattress and Cinderella. (No, she was NOT Cinderella!)

Sister Mary Wilhelm

Sister Mary Wilhelm started to contemplate life as a nun back in 1980 while on tour with "Up With People" as Sally Toivonen. After performing in the bullrings of Mexico in front of crowds of 100,000, she received her calling and became a Public Relations Speech writer for the Federal Government of Canada. While preparing policy statements on the GST status of Nuns' Habits, Rosaries and Prayer books, her research led her to the beckoning light of Father Allan, the GST Monk. She knew that God had alternate plans and a higher calling of Mother(Superior)hood, and without breaking the vow of chastity, God granted not one, but two miracle births; Saint Anja and Saint Johannes. Life off stage is full of trials and tribulations caring for these little saints. Sister's performance in Nunsense Jamboree is dedicated to her loving father "Short Mort" who watches over the entire cast from the best seat in the house ... in heaven. She is grateful that her convent is in the heart of Sault Ste. Marie, where she receives continued support in all of her endeavours.

Father Virgil Manly Trott

Father Virgil Manly Trott was none other than Tommy's Uncle Ernie. After leaving that cast, he soon found solace with the Franciscan Friars of Fort Wayne Indiana. They helped him see the error of his past ways, and put his charm and good looks to practical use as "Father Hollywood". They also pointed out to him his remarkable resemblance to Peter Hykel. Though Father Virgil has yet to tell the Friars about his wife and "Superior Mother" Kim, his son, "Brother" Justin and daughter, "Sister" Kaitlin, he owes them a rosary of thanks for their patience during "Father's" latest project.
